CCNB – Campus de Campbellton

The Collège communautaire du Nouveau-Brunswick (CCNB) - Campbellton Campus is seeking two dynamic instructors to teach the Early Childhood Education Program as part of a special client-focused continuing education project in English, for the Tobique First Nation. This position reports to the Department Head of Continuing Education.

JOB DESCRIPTION

As a member of the teaching team, the chosen candidates will:

- Prepare and teach Early Childhood Education courses in English;
- Provide explanations and answer students' questions;
- Correct work and exams;
- Evaluate students' progress while monitoring, supervising and performing administrative tasks.

REQUIREMENTS

Applicants must have a post-secondary education degree related to early childhood education and three (3) years of relevant experience. Training or teaching experience would be an asset. A working knowledge of the Microsoft Office suite is required as well as a very good knowledge of spoken and written English. Candidates must also demonstrate excellent interpersonal, communication and leadership skills.

According to the applications received, CCNB reserves the right to consider equivalence of training and experience requirements or to enhance them. The positions will not necessarily be reposted. To be considered for this position, it is essential to clearly demonstrate how you support equivalency of requirements. You are encouraged to submit your application.

CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT

Workplace: Tobique First Nation

Status: Casual

Salary: According to the current collective agreement of instructors

In order to be considered: In your resume, clearly state your skills, experience and language ability. For each job, indicate the date (month-year) of start and end. Be able to provide a criminal record check certificate and proof of diplomas. Applications can be submitted in either English or French, including the Résumé and cover letter. The employer reserves the right to increase the requirements for pre-selection purposes.

CCNB offers an equal chance of employment for all.
